TONOPAH YOUTH STATE WINNER IN ESSAY CONTEST

Howard Sheerin Honored in Contest Conducted by the American Legion

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 7.—First prize state winners of the American Legion's national essay contest for school children were announced today by Garland W. Powell, national director of the Legion's Americanism commission. The subject was: "How Can the American Legion Best Serve the Nation?"

Among the list of winners in the essay contest is Howard Sheerin of Tonopah. Several other western youths also won recognition in the contest.

The winning essays will be judged by John J. Tigert, U. S. commissioner of education; E. E. Brown, former national commissioner of education; and S. S. McClure, publisher, to determine the national award. This will be announced Jan. 19, the birth day of Robert E. Lee. National prizes are: first, $750; second, $500 and third, $250.

More than 50,000 school children participated in the contest, a part of the Legion's campaign to advance the cause of education in connection with the American education week. Medals to the state winners are being forwarded today.

AMUSEMENTS

ANITA STEWART IN NOVEL PHOTOPLAY

"Her Mad Bargain," starring Anita Stewart, will be shown at the Butler today. The story is based on the experiences of a young society girl who is suddenly reduced to penniless circumstances. She has no qualms or foolish ideals to overcome in her efforts to earn her own living, but her situation is desperate because she does not know how to work.

After being raised in the lap of luxury the business of wrestling a living from the world is at least serious if not tragic. How she manages with her problem, the episodes of her adventurous career and the pretty little romance in which she is gathered into a picture that is sure to please the people who see it, comes involved are all worked to add to the feature will be the latest Pathe News. Tomorrow Shirley Mason in "The New Teacher," and another one of those remarkable funny face doll pictures. Coming, Theodore Roberts in "The Old Homestead."

SHRINE CLUB DANCE
HIGHLY ENTERTAINING

The Pythian auditorium was the scene last night of one of the social events of the year when the Shrine club of Tonopah entertained at a handsomely appointed hop. There was a large gathering present and invitations had been extended to a number of friends and the evening passed only too quickly. The very best of music obtainable had been secured, while light refreshments were served that were greatly appreciated. The floor of the auditorium is now in splendid condition and coupled with the attractiveness of the hall through appropriate decorations, the event proved one that will long be remembered.

Gorgeous gowns worn by the ladies attracted much attention, special attention having been given by the members of the fair sex to this matter.

At the Auditorium Saturday night, jittery dance. Admission free. Bring your girls. D7-31

The Bonanza publishes the news the day it happens. No rehearsal in the telegraphic dispatches. Only a dollar month, delivered at your door.
